

The Royal Astronomical Society of Canada

Montreal Centre

presents:

Astrophotographer Albert Saikaley

“My experiences in the field of astrophotography”

Get ready for a treat: to kick off this fall's series of astronomy lectures, the RASC Montreal Centre presents Albert Saikaley, who will give a presentation featuring his stunning astro-images. Mr Saikaley has had his images reproduced in Skynews magazine and also features in the RASC 2006 Observer's Calendar (he is "Mr December").

Students of John Abbott College, as well as the general public, are welcome to attend.

Make sure you don't miss this stellar event!
